

JUST TALK

CAMPAIGN

Wanting to give up your time to raise money for a local Organisation?

We are looking for voluntary Fundraisers to join our company!

This is an UNPAID, VOLUNTARY job opportunity.

Your job role will include:

- Posting job ads, recruiting fundraisers
- Calling and booking locations for various charities
- General jobs such as organisation, managing office supplies etc

About Just Talk Campaign

We are a non-profitable professional organisation that support people with Emotional Wellbeing issues, we provide monthly free drop in groups and one to one counselling to those suffering with Emotional Wellbeing issues. Our exciting range of volunteering opportunities include fundraising, admin work and PR work.

If you are looking for a change of career, want to work to help change the stigma attached to people seeking counselling, then this could be the perfect role for you. We will offer you full training, and we will give you extra training once you have given at least 6 months of your time.

Although this is an unpaid position, we are giving people the opportunity to gain a paid job role after a period of time
